Page 1 — Attendance

Section 5.1 — General attendance requirement. A student must maintain at least 75% attendance in a course to be eligible for the regular end-semester examination.

Page 2 — Examination absence

Section 6.2 — Examination absence. A student who misses an examination must submit an absence explanation to the Academic Office within three working days. Approval of a special examination is not automatic.

Page 3 — Interpretation

Section 17.6 — Conflicting provisions. If two provisions appear to impose incompatible requirements on the same situation, the conflict should be referred to the designated academic authority rather than resolved by assumption.
